An attractive Song Cycle program is featured by Mrs. James Gruenebaum and Mr. Emmet Bagby, with Mrs. George B. Hart as accompanist. Mr. William Reddick, of Cincinnati, is on the program for two piano numbers, selected.

Pretty Class Party.

Miss Elsie Hoewischer, 527 Jefferson street, was hostess to the Class of 1906, P. H. S. last evening at her home. It was a prettily planned holiday party and the Christmas motif was attractively carried out.

The rooms were effectively decorated with holly and Christmas bells. Christmas games was an enjoyable feature. In a guessing contest Miss Ella Wilhelm carried off the honors. The prize was a framed picture of the "Class of 1906." Christmas stockings filled with candy were pretty souvenirs for each guest in another contest. An attractively appointed luncheon in several courses, with coffee, was served during the evening. The Christmas idea was carried out in the dining-room appointments. Those present were: Misses Inez Bell, Blanche Mooney, Emma Mayer, Ella Wilhelm, Mary Bondurant, Floyd Swift, Lucy Scott, Elsie Hoewischer.

Nothing looks prettier on a woman than a white apron with a big bow at the back.
